

Extra! Extra! Read All About It!

Sherlock Holmes Unit

Pretend you are a journalist in London reporting on Sherlock's recent crime investigations. You will write a newspaper article that explains the known information about the case to the public.

Article Requirements:

- Your article must include the 5W's and 1 H: Who? What? Where? When? Why? How?
- Your article must follow the inverted pyramid structure for news writing.
- Your article must have an interesting headline.
- Your article must have a few relevant "quotes" from relevant characters in the story. *These quotes can be made up.
- Your article must contain at least one picture with a caption. *Use Google Image search to find a picture that would fit within your article.
- Your article must be formatted using columns to resemble an actual newspaper article.

Procedure:

1. You will have one day/night to plan and draft your article.
2. You will have one class period in the computer lab to type your article.
3. You will have one night (homework) to edit and revise your article as needed.

